Prevea Welcomes Orthopedic Surgeon

Green Bay – Sept. 8, 2008 – Padraic Obma, MD, has joined Prevea Health as an orthopedic surgeon at the Ashwaubenon Health Center, 760 Pilgrim Way.

A native of La Crosse, Dr. Obma recently completed a sports medicine fellowship with well-known orthopedic surgeons James Andrews, MD, and William Clancy, Jr., MD, at the Andrews Sports Medicine and Orthopedic Center in Birmingham, Ala. During his fellowship, Dr. Obma served as a team physician for Auburn University and provided medical assistance to the Washington Redskins of the National Football League and for the NFL combines.

Dr. Obma provides a wide range of orthopedic and sports medicine treatment options for people with shoulder, elbow, wrist, knee and ankle injuries. He will assist with medical coverage for University of Wisconsin-Green Bay and St. Norbert College athletic teams and for several local high schools.

A graduate of St. Cloud State University in Minnesota, Dr. Obma received his medical degree from the Medical College of Wisconsin in Milwaukee and completed his residency at Indiana University in Indianapolis.

Patients may schedule appointments with Dr. Obma by calling (920) 496-4725 or (888) 2PREVEA.

Founded in 1996, Prevea Health partners with St. Mary's Hospital Medical Center and St. Vincent Hospital in Green Bay to provide access to more than 180 providers in about 50 specialty areas. Prevea's 16 health centers are located throughout metropolitan Green Bay and in Marinette, Oconto, Plymouth, Pulaski, Seymour, Sheboygan and Sturgeon Bay.
